Human Trafficking: How mental health providers can respond

Ms. Afua Addo, Women's Services Coordinator, Hidden Victims Project, Queens Criminal Court

- We will hear and discuss Ms. Addo's presentation, which will also address trauma informed perspectives, and inform us about how the Queens courts' innovative approach to this growing issue.
- We will continue our discussion about cultural competence implementation – what are the challenges, obstacles and opportunities?
- All community stakeholders, especially mental health workers, managers, providers, consumers, peer specialists, and family members are invited.
- Seating is limited to 50 people. To RSVP, please e-mail your name, organization and e-mail address, as shown below.
- Future meeting topics are selected by the people who attend the quarterly meetings.

The New York City Regional Multicultural Advisory Committee of the New York State Office of Mental Health meets four times a year. All stakeholders are invited to attend.
